Sunday Reflection

Sharing the work

Christ doesn't send us out alone to do his work. He sends others along to help carry the load. We must listen to each other, encourage each other, and eagerly spur each other on. We must share all that we have, whether it's material or spiritual, as we work together. It is this willing unity of work, of service, that God will bless.

July 16: Our Lady of Mount Carmel
Optional Memorial

Patron Saint of Bolivia and the Carmelite Order
Invoked for those in Purgatory

At the base of Mount Carmel, on the northwest coast of Israel, lies a Carmelite monastery named Stella Maris, Latin for “Star of the Sea.” This monastery is built over a cave believed to have been where the prophet Elijah, inspired by God, challenged 450 prophets of Baal in a contest to the death. Elijah triumphed. Shortly after, Elijah prophesied the end of a three-year drought when his servant reported to him that he saw a “cloud as small as a man’s hand rising from the sea.” That small cloud quickly transformed into a heavy rainfall over the parched earth. Later Carmelites interpreted Elijah’s vision as a prefiguration of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She was seen as the small cloud rising from the sea, a true “Star of the Sea,” and the rain that would emerge from her to end the three-year drought was perceived as the grace and mercy poured out by her Son, Jesus.

It is believed that following the time of Elijah, other hermits emulated Elijah and his successor, Elisha, by becoming hermits in the caves of Mount Carmel. Although some traditions hold that these holy hermits embraced Christ and lived on this sacred mountain from the time of Christ, written records only confirm their presence from the thirteenth century onwards. It was then, in 1209, that a group of hermits asked Bishop Albert, the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem, to provide them with a rule of life. Bishop Albert did so, and the Order of Brothers of The Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel, later known as the Carmelites, was formed. One of their first acts was to erect a chapel dedicated to Mary, Star of the Sea, Stella Maris. In 1226, their rule was approved by Pope Honorius.

In the fifteenth century, the Carmelite order expanded to include women in religious service and also developed into a lay third order. In 1726, Pope Benedict XIII placed this Carmelite devotion to our Blessed Mother on the universal calendar of the Church under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Fr. Kevin's Cluttered Desk

Have you ever taken the time to reflect on the inheritance offered to us by God, the fullness of the baptismal promises? In Baptism, and again in Confirmation, we are sealed with the Holy Spirit, we are marked as God's beloved children and listed as those who are called to inherit a place in the Kingdom of God. But what might that look like? The first thing to recognize is that we might use the word inherit in our worldly lives, but it is different from how God might use it. In our world today, more often than not, inheritance seems to be an expectation and right and is not always understood as a "pure gift." For God our inheritance is a pure gift, but it is also a gift that can be lost. In both worldly and heavenly inheritance there are conditions. In our heavenly inheritance we must be born again in Baptism, we must pick up our cross daily and follow Jesus even in the hard times and no matter what the cost, we must be Confirmed and receive the fullness of the Holy Spirit. Our faith and trust in God must be there, it does not have to be perfect or complete, but it must be there. Now having said that, God is above any rule and God chooses as God wills. Still, what are we doing to live in the love of God and how are we picking up our cross every day and following Jesus? There is much argument around the question of 'can we lose our inheritance?' Some will argue that it can never be lost but that is not what Jesus teaches, for many will cry out "Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name?" and Jesus will say "go away from me for I do not know you." (Matthew 7:20-23). Our reflection on our inheritance should always begin with the question of "is my faith and trust in God bearing good fruit?"

Peace Fr. Kevin
