Prayer for the nation

Almighty God, You have given us this good land for our heritage. We humbly ask You that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Your favour and glad to do Your will. Bless our land with honourable endeavour, sound learning and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitude brought here out of many nations and tongues. Endow with Your Spirit of wisdom those to whom in Your name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to Your law we may show forth Your praise among the nations on earth. In time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble do not allow our trust in You to fail. Amen.

Stewardship Reflection

It is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need. (2 Corinthians 8. 13-14)

Stewards do not simply give to needs but have a need to give. To follow Jesus, who became poor for our sake, it is just as important that we do not have too much as it is that others do not have too little.

Fr. Kevin's Cluttered Desk

I would like to begin by thanking all of those who helped in celebrating my 25th anniversary. Over the last few weeks many people have told me that anniversaries are important, and I suppose they are but for me, if 25 or 40 years from now people still remember me and say I was wonderful, my question would be "do you still go to church and receive the Eucharist?" If I haven't pointed you to Jesus, if I haven't caused you to reflect and depend on your relationship with God, if I haven't brought you to the Eucharist, if I haven't shared with you the healing power of the Eucharist, then I have failed you as a priest. It must be remembered that a priest is a sign-post, maybe a fancy one or a plain one, but always a sign-post pointing to Jesus. The spiritual fatherhood of a priest finds its home in God the Father, for all are welcome and all are family and often a broken family. And so, the priest points to Jesus the healer; the healer of our body, the healer of our soul, and the healer of our mind. Jesus worked through Peter to perform great miracles but Peter was not the healer, Jesus was. Jesus works through all of us if we let Him, and this is why the priest must be a sign-post, for even though we were created for incorruption and are images of God, we are also sinners in need of God's endless mercy and love. And so the priest points to the one who is perfect and is perfect love, the one who died for us, the one who brought us to salvation. Within each of us is that perfect one and in the Eucharist we unite ourselves to the one, the one who is all in all. In the Mass the priest in "Persona Christi Capita" calls down the Spirit upon the gifts of bread and wine that they might be changed into the body and blood of Jesus but even here the priest is a signpost pointing the way to eternal life. Yes, anniversaries are important, but feeding the flock with Jesus so they might follow the signs to eternal life and live with Him forever, that's the great celebration.

Peace Fr. Kevin
